

STRENGTHENING U.S. MANUFACTURING

September 29 - October 2

The Manufacturing Policy Initiative, with the Hudson Institute, presents “Strengthening U.S. Manufacturing,” a series of policy discussions with industry leaders, policy makers and scholars. The series culminates in a live event featuring spokespersons for presidential candidates Biden, Jorgensen and Trump on Manufacturing Day, Friday, October 2.

Restoring the Industrial Commons

September 29
Noon - 1 p.m.

The U.S. has lost significant manufacturing capabilities through outsourcing. How can policy makers reverse this trend?

MODERATOR

Tom Duesterberg, Hudson Institute

PANEL

Zoul Ballman, Sr Supply Chain Manager, Tsuchiya Group N America and TASUS Corp.; Sridhar Kota, Director, MFOresight; Bill Osborne, Sr. VP Enterprise Operations, The Boeing Company; Sue G. Smith, VP, Technology & Applied Science, Ivy Tech Community College

Spurring Innovation

September 30
Noon - 1 p.m.

In recent decades, the U.S. manufacturing sector has experienced low productivity growth. Which policies would spur innovation and productivity and enhance U.S. competitiveness?

MODERATOR

Gil Kaplan, MPI Senior Fellow, Former Under Secretary of Commerce for International Trade, U.S. Department of Commerce

PANEL

Stephen Ezell, VP, Information Technology and Innovation Foundation; Ralph Gomory, Former Sr. VP for Science & Tech., IBM; John Nueffer, President & CEO, Semiconductor Ind. Assn.; Taffy Kingscott, VP, IBM Research

RSVP FOR LIVE ELECTION 2020 EVENT

SEPT. 29, 30, OCT. 1 EVENTS STREAMED AT HUDSON.ORG

Enhancing Resilience

October 1
Noon - 1 p.m.

The global pandemic revealed fragility in global value chains. What role can the U.S. government play to enhance resilience of the manufacturing supply chain?

MODERATOR

Stephen Gold, President, Manufacturers Alliance for Productivity and Innovation

PANEL

Keith Belton, Principal, Pareto Policy Solutions; Rosemary Gibson, Senior Advisor, The Hastings Center; Gary Johnson, Chief Mfg. and Labor Affairs, Ford Motor Company; Robert Scott, Sr. Economist, Economics Policy Institute

Live Event: Election 2020

October 2
Noon - 1:15 p.m.

The Presidential candidates want to strengthen U.S. manufacturing. In this live event, campaign spokespersons describe their plans.

SPOKESPERSONS FOR CANDIDATES

Trump Campaign Spokesperson:
U.S. Senator Mike Braun (IN);
Biden Campaign Spokesperson:
U.S. Congressman Tim Ryan (OH);
Jorgensen Campaign Spokesperson:
Nathanael Snow, Professor, Ball State University

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
MANUFACTURING POLICY INITIATIVE